

Media Summary 5 – 11 July 2014

UWE Bristol News

Monday 7 July

South West Business – Bristol's University of the West of England work with Business to help record number of graduates into work

University Business – UWE one of the top for graduate employment

Bristol Post – Ctrl-Alt-Donate UWE Bristol video gamers celebrate charity success

Bristol Post – New Bristol enterprise zone brings 500 jobs £50m boost to economy

Tuesday 8 July

Bristol Post – Bristol area awarded £86m in growth deal

Bristol Post – How the £86.2m for Bristol breaks down

Silobreaker – UWE VC welcomes local growth deal announced at BRL today

Bristol Post – Cable wires Vince Cable pays visit to Bristol

South West Business – Business secretary Vince Cable plugs into west's economic growth on visit

Wednesday 9 July

Gazette Series – Vince cable visits South Gloucestershire to announce multi-million growth deal funding package

Daily Mail – Girls as young as nine see pretty blonde women who wear tight clothes to attract men as the ideal woman, according to shocking new research

Friday 11 July

Yahoo News – Child abuse cases spark soul searching in Britain

Media appearances

Steve West was interviewed for BBC Points West on Monday regarding the announcement of the first ever Local Growth Deal with the West of England Local Enterprise Partnership amounting to £86.2 million.

Dr Ann Alson was interviewed by BBC Radio Wales about a survey conducted that suggests children are reading more.