

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team 5 – 17 April 2014

UWE Bristol News

Monday 7 April

Bristol Post - REVIEW: UWE spring concert at Bristol Cathedral, Five stars, by John Packwood

Wednesday 9 April

South West Business – Business Showcase South West 2014

Thursday 10 April

Wiltshire Business – UWE internship scheme open for business

Bristol Post - New weekly market in East Street, Bedminster, Bristol, to be launched on Saturday

Machinery Market - Ceramic 3-D printing on The Gadget Show

Bristol Post - VIDEO: Aerial view of Ashton Court, Bristol

Friday 11 April

Bristol 24/7 - Bristol team catalogue meaning behind UK surnames

Bristol Post - Bristol Distinguished Executive Address Series welcomes Louise Makin of BTG International Ltd

Tuesday 15 April

Bristol 24/7 - New guide launched to reveal Bristol's ancient history

Wednesday 16 April

Bristol Post - Is your surname in Bristol's top 20?

Media Appearances

Dr Lisa Harrison is being interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about the forthcoming European and Local elections.

Nigel England was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about student relations with local residents.

Nicola Rumsey appeared on BBC The One Show with Fiona Bruce discussing first impressions in relations to the nominations for The People's Portrait.

Charlotte Crofts is being interviewed by BBC Points West tonight about the Cary Grant festival happening in Bristol in October.