

Media Summary 9 – 22 May

Coverage

Western Daily Press – The first crane chicks for 400 years to feature David Attenborough's latest work

ITV West – University chancellor responds to election results

Bristol Post – Date set for High Court hearing between Bristol Rovers and Sainsbury's over Memorial Stadium

ITV West – Decision delayed on Bristol Rovers Stadium deal

North Devon Journal – Hartland woman completes hellish desert race

Times Higher Education – Postgraduate stop gap cash shunned by universities

The Times – Don't let the arts become another Cinderella industry

Media Appearances

The Bloodhound project was featured on BBC Points West following a local schoolchild who was inspired to build a go-cart style Bloodhound. UWE graduate Sarah Covell was also interviewed, the news item can be viewed here curtesy of BBC Points West

Damian Whittard (FBL) was interviewed by Sam FM (formerly Jack FM) about the economic impact on the city of Bristol Rovers and Bristol City both moving up divisions in the football league.

Heart FM attended the launch of the FGM summer campaign, they interviewed several people in preparation to put out an awareness news bulletin a week before the summer holidays commence.

The research into obese 4-5 year olds will be a top on BBC Radio Bristol Breakfast Show this Saturday, Matthew Pearce from Gloucestershire Clinical Commissioning Group will be interviewed live to discuss the findings.