

Media Coverage Summary 13-19 August 2016

Press releases

UWE Bristol opts for 100% green electricity consumption

Green motoring status awarded to UWE for electric vehicle commitment

UWE scientist discovers new specimens of 'living fossil', shedding new insights into evolution of scaly-tailed squirrels

Students need to be smart when picking their university, says UWE Bristol VC

Coverage

The Telegraph Glasses Direct and Sunglasses Shop owner sold to eyewear giant Essilor

The Independent How to host your own music festival

The Guardian Building better mental health in cities from the ground up

Daily Express GEE WHIZ! Scientists figure out how to charge your phone with WEE

CNBC This university has just decided to use 100% green electricity

CNN A real-life Pokemon: On the trail of a mysterious squirrel

Washington Post Scientists finally found Zenkerella, the world's most mysterious mammal

Bristol Post A levels results day 2016: Are there still UCAS Clearing places at Bristol University and UWE?

Time You Asked: What's the Best Hangover Cure?

Computing Universities must examine how they equip students for new challenges

Employee Benefits Lucy Rees: What lessons can organisations learn from the Hollywood gender pay debate?

Royal Institute of British Architects Journal Bricks with appetite

Edie.net Cow stomach bricks and mushroom burials: the best green innovations of the week

University Business Robots first to move into UWE's Future Space

South West Business Bristol solicitor to fly flag for young people from disadvantaged backgrounds

South West Business Bristol-based apprentices relish opportunity to work on Hinkley

Business Green University of the West of England opts for all-renewables electricity tariff

Broadcast

Vice-Chancellor Professor Steve West appeared on BBC Points West and BBC Radio Bristol on A-level results day, encouraging students to think carefully about their university choices

Ben Knight, Senior Lecturer in Primary and Early Years Education \(ACE\), interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about the success of Project Zulu

UWE Bristol's policy on meningitis vaccinations for students mentioned on BBC Radio Bristol