

Media Summary 22-29 April 2016

Coverage

Bristol Post – Boom time for UWE with massive campus expansion

BBC Scotland News - What is the chance of being called for jury service?

Independent – Engineering the right career path with work placements

Independent - 7 Steps to student safety

Transport Xtra – 'Consider needs of disabled riders when designing cycle routes'

EdQuarter - New Director of Strategic Marketing and Communications at UWE

The Business Exchange - New report predicts virtual reality to enter schools, homes and workplace

Phys.Org – Diesel emissions inquiry findings should shake up the car industry

Legal Cheek – UWE law graduate is the fourth coolest person in FinTech right now

Broadcast

Dr Steve Melia (FET) was interviewed BBC Points West about the mayoral impact on transport.

Professor Robin Hambleton (FET) has been interviewed by BBC Points West, BBC Radio 4 Today programme and Breeze/Sam FM about the Bristol mayoral elections and the impact that mayoral governance has had on Bristol.