

Media Summary 23 Jan – 5 Feb 2016

Coverage

Independent – Career takes flight with aerospace placement

Insider Media – Work starts on university enterprise zone

Telegraph – Where have all the white lines gone

Independent – How universities are tackling sustainability

Telegraph – Bloodhound land speed record attempt delayed

Bristol 24/7 - UWE graduate fashion weekend showcases Bristol talent

BBC News – Gulls research project plan by Bath council and university researchers

Phys.org - Connected autonomous vehicles promise travel freedom for older adults in the future

Bristol Post – Bristol project to create driverless cars for the elderly

Government.co.uk – Driverless cars technology receives £20m boost

Bristol Post – Experience life on a City trading floor or prosecuting a case in a court of law at UWE

Science Codex – Study assesses how to avoid unnecessary acute admissions to hospital

Wales Online - A stylist dressed people in Merthyr in high-end designer gear and these amazing pictures are the result

Western Daily Press – UWEs Donna Whitehead management skills

Independent – Beat the winter blues

Huffington Post – Group of student lawyers overturn 96 dwp fit to work

Bristol Post – The Edge award finalists

Independent – Passion for primates presents new career opportunities

Bristol Post – Instinct just kicked in student nurse saves women's life at the Bodyguard in Bristol Hippodrome

Daily Mirror – Student nurse receives standing ovation

Bus and Coach – ADL 'virtual electric' buses for Bristol trial

Daily Mail – Stop killer robots before its too late: Experts warn world to act quickly to prevent machines rising up and killing us

Legal Cheek – UWE and ULAW students build on last years success overturning 96 of department of work and pensions fit for work decisions

Broadcast

Gunter Walzenbach (FBL) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol giving expert European politics opinion on the EU draft reform deal.

Chris Pawson (HAS) will be interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about an 18-month research project into gull behaviour being proposed in Bath to help find ways to reduce numbers.

Dave Patten (HAS) and Dan Cole (FET) helped The One Show film an experiment involving a woodpecker skull and the electron microscope. The experiment is due to be aired sometime in the near future.

Professor Robin Hambleton (FET) was interviewed by BBC Radio Somerset talking about devolution bid in light of the Cities and Local Government Devolution Act 2016.

James Murphy (ACE) gave expert linguist commentary in light of David Camerson's comment about a 'bunch of migrants', he was interviewed by Made in Bristol TV and BBC Radio Bristol.

Dr Erik Stengler (HAS) – was interviewed by the Regional Radio of the Canary Islands about the science in Star Wars: The Force Awakens.

Kristian Keyte student nurse who saved a women's life in Bristol Hippodrome appeared on ITV West Country, BBC Radio Bristol, BBC Points West and Made in Bristol TV.

Dr Amy Slater (CAR) was interviewed about body image by Boom Cymru television company in Cardiff for a BBC Wales documentary 'Loving the skin you're in'.