

Media Summary 25 June - 1 July 2016

News

UWE Bristol celebrates graduation of nursing students in Gloucester

BBC World Service brings personal stories to life in partnership with UWE Bristol

Dementia researchers gather in Bristol to share findings with public

Bristol teenager becomes first to complete UWE's new employability award

UWE Bristol celebrates seven years of sponsoring Bristol Pride

Lawyer awards recognise pro bono work by UWE students

Is Brexit possible in fisheries?

UWE Bristol leading graduate employment results

UWE Bristol retains European Commission HR Excellence in Research Award

VC Steve West addresses students and staff after EU referendum

Low-cut dresses boost women's job application chances, researcher will tell body image conference

Coverage

The Times Smart seagulls target pub grub at closing time

Daily Mail Is this the depressing secret to success? Women wearing low-cut tops are FIVE times more likely to land a job interview

Times Higher Education Graduate employment hits record high as gender pay gap grows

DNA India Appearance-based games linked with body dissatisfaction in pre-teen girls

Electronic Specifier Pee Power takes centre stage at Glastonbury

Bristol Post Bristol universities call for calm among the city's students over Brexit decision in EU Referendum

Bristol Post Expert gives verdict on projects like Bristol Rovers and UWE's stadium following Brexit

Daily Mirror Female jobseekers who show cleavage in application photos 'more likely to land interviews'

Somerset Live Engineering for boys? These girls beg to differ for National Women in Engineering Day in Yeovil

The Sun THE BREAST CANDIDATE? Women who flaunt their boobs are more likely to get a job, according to an expert

ITV Seagulls make the most of closing time

Daily Mirror Seagulls have developed a \(terrifying\) new skill - so they can target your takeaway food

University Business New UWE accommodation tops out

The Sun GULLS NIGHT OUT Scavenging seagulls work out prime time to prey on takeaway loving boozers

Nursing Times ‘Hospital at home’ deemed safe and effective alternative to admission

The Bookseller Introducing the next generation of ambient literature

Daily Mirror Robots could end up like dangerous DOGS if humans don't learn to train them properly

The Independent The courses helping to shape the planet’s future

The Independent Why an engineering revolution is brewing

The Guardian Will your driverless car be willing to kill you to save the lives of others?

Broadcast

Dr Kent Fedorowich (ACE), Reader in British Imperial History, and Charles Booth (FBL), Associate Professor, appeared on BBC Radio Bristol, Somerset, Jersey, Lincolnshire and Leicester discussing their work on the First World War

Dr James Hoggett (HAS), Senior Criminology Lecturer, was interviewed on BBC Radio Somerset about Avon and Somerset Police

Dr Kate Beeching (ACE), Associate Professor in Applied Linguistics, was interviewed on BBC Radio Somerset about swearing

Dr Chris Pawson (HAS), Head of Psychology, was interviewed on BBC Radio Scotland about UWE’s urban seagull research

Professor Alan Winfield (BRL), Director of the Science Communication Unit, appeared on Share Radio discussing robotics

Dr Peter Clegg (HAS), Senior Lecturer in Politics and International Relations, was interviewed about Brexit and its implications for the UK and its overseas territories by Radio Anguilla