

Media Summary 1 – 7 November 2014

Coverage

Bristol Post - Green light for £50m Business and Law School

University Business - The importance of protecting the built environment from weather damage is being brought into focus by the Resilience14 conference

Bristol Business News - Green light for UWE's state-of-the-art £50m business and law school building

Bristol Business News - Bristol firms shine in the Sparkies and showcase the best of the West's tech innovators

Silo-Breaker – Reach Robotics to compete in final of Pitch @ Palace competition

Cyprus News Agency - Head of Bristol Robotics Laboratory, Cypriot Dr. Ieropoulos

Daily Post Nigeria – Graduates should be taxed specifically to create a balance – Prof Olomolaiye

BBC Online – ‘Coolest car in London’ saves lives

Heart – Teenagers wanted for body image research

Silo-Breaker – Design an animal inspired robot competition

Rad Magazine - PACS/RIS are useful learning tools at UWE

The Engineer - Honouring yesterday's engineers and the creativity of tomorrow's engineers

Insider Media - Hinkley Point C team lights up Power 50

Arthritis Research UK – The human side of rheumatoid arthritis

Bristol Post – Bristol bionic hands creator lands £125K in global competition

Western Daily Press – What will the John Lewis Christmas advert have in store for us in 2014?

South West Business – Bristol distinguished address series November 2014 John Lewis Chairman shares knowledge

Guardian – Ten public transport myths busted

Family Law – New initiatives aim to tackle domestic violence in universities and the workplace

CERN Bulletin - Cristal-ise your project

South West Business/Western Daily Press - Professor Richard Bolden, Bristol Leadership Centre, UWE: Turbulence is difficult for leading well

Media Appearances

Professor Robin Hambleton participated in a debate 'Power to the West' on BBC One on Wednesday evening. The debate was about the possibilities for devolving power from Whitehall and Westminster to localities in England.

Laura Fogg Rogers was interviewed by BCFM Radio and Made in Bristol TV regarding the Robots vs Animals competition.