

Media Summary 29 Nov – 5 Dec 2014

Coverage

IT Pro – Government allocates £20m to IT skills gap apprenticeships

Bath Chronicle - Design to go under the spotlight in Bath

BBC online – Collaboration ‘way forward’ for city regions

BBC Online – City region bid ‘key to welsh economy’

Education Technology – UWE Bristol leads robotics week

Guide2Bristol – Bristol digital week returning in February

Bristol Post – Bristol Post and Bath Chronicle Women in Business Awards launched

Times Higher Education – Postgraduate loans welcomed, but what about mature students?

Bristol Post – Driverless cars could be on the streets next year: Autumn statement 2014

V3 – Bristol, London, Milton Keynes and Coventry will host driverless car tests

South West Business – Driverless cars could be on Bristol streets next year – Autumn Statement 2014

Gazette Series – Driverless cars coming to South Gloucestershire

The Guardian – Let’s give girls with low self-esteem strong role models in schools

Media Appearances

Professor Graham Parkhurst (FET) was interviewed by BBC Points West and BBC Radio Bristol about VENTURER consortium testing driverless cars in Bristol. The driverless car piece on BBC Points West can be viewed here 11.37 mins into the programme - <http://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b04sxc6n/bbc-points-west-04122014>.

Andy Ridgeway (HAS) was interviewed by BBC Radio Suffolk talking about wire free Christmas lights and why dogs are such messy drinkers.