

Media Summary 31 Jan – 6 February

Coverage

University Business - Page 48 Knowledge is power - Clare Rowson, UWE KTP Manager
Page 50 Research and Knowledge Transfer: the role of universities as engine of growth – BRL/UWE
Venturer Driverless car project.

Northumberland Gazette - HOUSING: Only build houses where they are really needed

Telegraph – STEM awards stand out on the global stage

The Telegraph – Roadtesting Googles new driverless car

The Guardian - 'We said never again after Climbié. We were wrong'

Bristol Post - Bristol inventor Joel Gibbard - who created 3D printed robotic hand for amputees - is nominated for award

The Guardian – I quit my job to set up a post-apocalyptic commune

Business Leader – Awards ceremony to honour emerging graduate talent

Western Daily Press – Tuition fees cap could damage options - UWE's Steve West

The Guardian - Universities are reluctant to tackle sexual violence for fear of PR fallout

Western Daily Press – Enterprising students to be recognised

Bristol 24/7 – My Bristol favourites Finn Mackay

Media Appearances

Praminda Caleb-Solly was interviewed by BBC Radio 4 Programme You and Yours about robots assisting people with dementia.

Diane Robinson was interviewed by ITV West Country for a news report about a cold case murder enquiry, giving commentary about forensic evidence. The news article is scheduled for broadcast on Monday 9 February.