

Media Summary 17 – 30 January 2015

Coverage

Times Higher Education - Space race makes University of the West of England's campus fit to face the future

Northumberland Gazette – Housing only build houses where they are really needed

Chartered Society of Physiotherapy - CSP calls on members to become e-mentors to future physiotherapists

Bristol Post – Bristol film director Jake Reid reveals all about city-filmed gangster thriller The Antwerp Dolls, getting stopped by police and the power of perseverance

South West Business – Steve West, UWE Bristol Vice-Chancellor: 'we need more international students and we want them to stay'

Bristol Post – We need more international students and we want them to stay

Bristol Post – Bristol business leaders told: 'Time to talk up South West powerhouse'

Nursing Standard - Candy McCabe appointed Florence Nightingale Foundation chair in clinical nursing practice research

AUDE Newsletter - <http://www.aude.ac.uk/news-and-events/news/currentaudenewsletter/>

BBC Online – Whatever happened to the future?

Telegraph – STEM awards help UK stand out on the global stage

Western Daily Press - UWE entrepreneurship student Jamie Rawsthorne on Unique Access and opportunities

Gazette Series – Remote controlled cars test pupils technical skills

BBC Online – Is urinating in public ever acceptable?

Western Daily Press – Western Daily Press Business Guide 2015 Launch

Road CC - Getting England cycling would bring £248bn economic boost says CTC

Guide2Bristol – Get Bristol Buzzing insect conservation initiative launched by city organisations

University Business – UWE and Arnolfini art boost

Bristol Post – UWE Bristol hailed over commitment to gay staff

Media Appearances

Andrew Tallen (FET) was interviewed by BBC Radio Gloucestershire about the geographical north/south divide.

Shawn Sobers (CI) was interviewed BBC Radio Bristol on Saturday about the Roots Exhibition.