

How applications for UWE Bristol full tuition fees postgraduate scholarships are assessed.

In order to be considered for one of UWE full tuition fees post graduate scholarships, applicants will need to have an offer of a place on their chosen course and completed a task via their UWE Welcome website.

- Chancellor's Scholarship
- Millennium Scholarship
- Justice Malek Ahmad Scholarship
- Professor Arthur Li Scholarship

They only need to make one application but they will be considered for all of the UWE full tuition fees post graduate scholarship listed above.

The International office will assess their application and notify them by email if their application meets or does not meet the above scholarship criteria. Only those applications meeting the criteria will be sent to the scholarship board for final assessment.

The scholarship board will assess successful applications based on the answers provided to the scholarship task questions sent to applicants via their UWE Welcome website. The scholarship board will be looking for the very highest academic achievers who have given full and relevant answers to the questions asked. Application should reflect applicants' abilities and motivation, how they intend to use their experience and knowledge from studying this course. They will also look at applicant's professional experience and career aspirations and how committed applicants are to contributing to society, their country and the university after this course.

Late applications will not be considered.

Please note that successful candidates will need to demonstrate they hold sufficient funds to cover their living expenses. This evidence must be supplied when accepting the scholarship. Successful candidates will have:

- To undertake an internship working an average of 6 hours per week.
- To take part in ambassadorial activity for the University as requested.
- Following graduation, they must be an active member of the UWE Alumni Network by helping the University to promote its programmes to prospective students

Failure to fulfil these conditions may result in their scholarship being withdrawn and becoming liable for their tuition fees.
