Description

UDK is one of the largest and most diversified arts universities in the world and one of few German art colleges with full university status. UDK is one of the key cultural venues in Germany's largest city. UDK is located in Charlottenburg, an elegant and wealthy district of Berlin, home to Charlottenburg Palace and Park, as well as leafy boulevards and villas.

Surrounding Area

Famously divided in the aftermath of World War Two, Berlin is now well known for its festivals, diverse architecture, nightlife, contemporary arts, public transportation networks, and a high standard of living.

Accommodation

Most students find private accommodation online, but University accommodation can be arranged via the international office. Guidance is available on the UDK website. Students should expect to pay between EUR350-450 for a shared flat including bills.

How to apply

When successfully selected by UWE and nominated to UDK, you will need to provide:

- Online application
- CV and Letter of Motivation
- Portfolio (PDF format, no larger than 5MB)

Application deadline: November 15
